

Central Shenandoah Valley

Emergency Services Leadership Symposium

“The Buck Stops Here: Creating & Maintaining a Culture of Accountability” - explore the concept of accountability as a leadership principle from multiple perspectives. Leaders do not blame others for what happens, they make things right. Presented by Tim McKay, Battalion Chief with Chesterfield County Fire & EMS

“Low Frequency, High Risk Events: Wicklow Lane Multiple Fatality House Fire” - a case study of the deadliest fire in Chesterfield County’s recent history. Discuss fire behavior, risk benefit, critical decision-making and crew integrity as keys to successful operations. Presented by Joy Kniceley, Battalion Chief & Brian Warshawsky, Lieutenant with Chesterfield County Fire & EMS.

Company Officer Shakers Forum - a facilitated discussion allowing participants to provide questions to be answered by a panel of ; career fire chief, volunteer fire chief, and several experienced company officers. Learn from the significant experiences the panel will represent.

Date: September 9, 2017

Time: 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Location:
Blue Ridge Community College

Online Registration Only:

<https://csvesleadershipsymposium2017.eventbrite.com>

Password: leadership

Sponsored By:

Event Contact:

Stephen Morris, Deputy Chief, (540) 432-7703
steve.morris@harrisonburgva.gov